Colored Christians Doing Soul and Body Work" for the Fallen

"I will sing you a song of that beautiful land, the far away home of the soul." These words were borne to the cars of a Critic reporter as he passed along Twelfth street, just below the First Precinct Station-house last night. The music came from a former storeroom a few doors above C street. The singers were four or five devout-looking colored men. The store room had been fitted up in an impromptu manner and dedicated as "Mount Herman Baptist The interior was dimly lighted by lamps and looked like any thing but a temple of worship.

One of the singers was Rev. R. C. Herbert, an intelligent colored divine, and the others were his pillars of support in the worthy work among the fallen. Notwithstanding the smallness of the audience, the colored Christians prayed devoutly and sang with a farreaching carnestness. The music of that familiar old hymn: "The Far-Away Home of the Soul," penetrated the locality in striking contrast with the gibes, curses and Bachanalian sones of the surrounding houses of ill-These colored Baptists are engaged in a worthy work.

Enterprise on the B. & P. R. R. "Ardwick Heights," embracing some 200 acres of high rolling land adjoining Ardwick Station, eight miles from the city by rail or six-by turnpike, has been subdivided into building lots by Thomas A. Mitchell, esq., of this city, who is offering lots on specially accommodating terms. A new departure in the sale of suburban lots is the new part of the sale of suburban lots is the payment of interest on all monthly dues received until a deed is delivered to the purchaser. We see no reason why Ardwick Heights should not become a prosperous and wealthy suburb in the near future, and we wish Mr. M. success in his undertaking.

It was been said by all experts on bee that Robert Portuer's is the best.

A MYSTERIOUS CASE,

The Bedy of a Supposed Washing-

Chief of Police Moore to-day re ceived a telegram from Chief of Police Murray of New York, conveying information that a body had been found on the beach at Hampton, Virginia. Eugraved on a watch, which was found in the vest pocket, was the name R. S. Donaldson, 200 Thirteenth street southwest. Inquiry at the home of Benjamin Donaldson at the above number showed that there must be some mistake about the identity of the body, as R. S. Donaldson, whose name is used, is in the city and his wife is visiting friends down the river. How the man who was found came in possession of the watch cannot be ascertained. Cor-oner P. W. Phillips of Hampton, who held the inquest, telegraphed to New York and from there the message was

For 5 shares of Traders' National Bank stock 95 was paid on a paid in value of 70, with more stock for sale at the same price. A word of explanation as to the amount "paid in" on this stock may be timely. As every stockholder and dealer in the shares knows, the amount paid in is 90, instead of 70, as stated on the stock list of the Exchange, stated on the stock list of the Exchange, but inasmuch as the $20 additional was advanced by the stockholders to create an immediate surplus, instead of having an immediate surplus, instead of having it accumulate from earnings, it was deemed last night by the board of brokers to state the amount as but 70, because in naming the paid-in value of other bank stocks all that have their capital full paid have the par named as 100, which is fixed and unchangeable. The surplus is, of course, a thing liable to daily growth or diminution. Hence he stock selling at 95 is really at a premium of $5. But little is known about the business of the Traders' Bank; it is believed to be a thing of steady and constant growth, and as an institution for the safe custody of money absolutely be-

The only other recorded sale was of 40 shares of Pneumatic Gun Carriage stock. It brought 14 with more stock for sale apparently at the same price. This stock is recognized as speculative and probably not a little money has been lost in it. The invention is believed to be one of undoubted merit. Its obect is to handleguns of great weight by utilizing the pressure of the steam of the boilers on a ship, something after the manner of an air-brake on a rail-road train. It is believed that all the trials made under the supervision of Governmental engineers have been eminently successful. The par value of the stock is $10; nominal capital $1,-

The advancing tendency shown by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone stock continues, and the lowest offering was at 72‡, with the bid 70½. The pre-vious day a bid of 71 falled to find a

It is believed that the man offering to sell Pennsylvania Telephone stock at 28%, stands on dangerous ground if he is doing it to hold down the price. At 30, even on the present dividend of 4 per cent. on the par value of $50, the yield is pearly ? per cent., and there is little doubt about the advance of the July dividend to 5 per cent., in which case, at 30, the yield will be close to 8; per cent. There seems to be a dearth of good lots of Graphophone stock. There are orders for 400 shares around the city, but no one will accept anything like the bid price for the stock. Those who are interested in depreciating Graphophone stock had better stay away from the office of the company if they do not want to have the conviction forced upon them that they have chosen unwisely in selecting the bear side of the market on this stock. On entering the door yes-terday visitors were greeted with a re-freshing sight to the believers in the Graphophone stock. On the large mantelpiece were fourteen mammoth cabinet photographs showing the dif-ferent rooms of the factory, crowded with workmen, the machinery in full blast, with scores of the completed instruments in course of preparation for shipment. Not a little important in-formation away from the office of a semi-official character has recently been gathered, but held from publication by request. A well-informed broker should be able to impart it to those interested. The utmost harmony and cordiality ap-pears to exist between the company pears to exist between the company and Mr. Lippincott, so much so that probably at once the business of manu-facturing machines for the Canadian market, too, will be begun for him in the Dominton. The graphophones were doing grand work at the Capitol yesterday, and it is largely due to this little worder. Worker that the wholes of ittle wonder-worker that the whole o the interesting tariff debate in the House yesterday is ready for those so eager to get a sight at the Record this morning Probably in the history of reporting th world over never was such a volume of important matter bandled with the same accuracy, and yet driveling idiots who have sold the stock short are attempt ing to deceive the public into the be lief that the success of the graphophon

The Interesting Monthly Report of the work of the Newsboys' and

The work of the Newsboys and Children's Aid Society for the month ending May 5, is set forth in a report just issued. Employment was furnished for 8 boys free lodging given to 91, meals to 191. Two lost children were sent home and medical aid supplied to 1. Thirty four pieces of clothing were furnished to poor children. Fifty-two visits were made to the Po lice Court and stations for indigent boys. The lady managers of the home appeal to the public for contributions of children's underclothing and for shoes and stockings.

The managers thank the public for its liberal patronage of the several recent entertainments for the benefit of the home, and say that the money thus realized will add very much toward its support during the summer months The lady managers of the home appeal to the public for contributions of chil dren's underclothing and for shoes and
